GSF/01/2026

23-March-2026

“Pakistan’s strength lies in the unity, resilience, and potential of its people. On Pakistan Day, we reaffirm our commitment to constructive dialogue, knowledge, and national progress.”

Global Strategic Forum (GSF)

- ❖ The Global Strategic Forum (GSF) extends its warm greetings to the people of Pakistan on the occasion of Pakistan Day. 23 March holds a distinguished place in Pakistan’s history, commemorating the Lahore Resolution of 1940, a defining milestone in the political struggle that led to the creation of Pakistan in 1947.
- ❖ GSF pays tribute to Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah, Allama Muhammad Iqbal, and the leaders, workers, and people of the Pakistan Movement whose vision, determination, and sacrifices contributed to the creation of Pakistan. The resilience and achievements of the Pakistani people across education, science, technology, diplomacy, culture, and other fields continue to strengthen Pakistan’s contribution to the international community.
- ❖ Pakistan Day provides an opportunity to reflect on national achievements while looking ahead with confidence and optimism. GSF believes that continued progress can be strengthened through national unity, quality education, research, innovation, institutional development, responsible citizenship, and constructive engagement with the international community. Pakistan’s youth have an important role to play in shaping a peaceful, stable, and forward-looking country.
- ❖ On this Pakistan Day, GSF reaffirms its commitment to promoting informed and constructive discourse on international relations, strategic affairs, peace, and national development. The Forum remains committed to contributing to a deeper understanding of Pakistan’s evolving role in regional and global affairs. GSF wishes Pakistan and its people continued peace, stability, prosperity, and progress.
