

Press Release

GSF/02/2026

28-May-2026

“Youm-e-Takbeer marks a significant milestone in Pakistan’s history and reflects the nation’s resolve, resilience, and scientific achievement. On this occasion, the Global Strategic Forum (GSF) pays tribute to the Pakistan Armed Forces for their unwavering service, professionalism, courage, and commitment to safeguarding the sovereignty and national security of Pakistan. GSF also recognises the valuable contributions of the country’s scientists, engineers, researchers, and institutions whose dedication has strengthened Pakistan’s scientific and strategic capabilities. We honour all those who have contributed to the security, resilience, and progress of Pakistan.”

Global Strategic Forum (GSF)

- ❖ The Global Strategic Forum (GSF) extends its greetings to the people of Pakistan on the occasion of Youm-e-Takbeer. Observed on 28 May, the day commemorates Pakistan’s nuclear tests of 1998 and stands as a significant milestone in the country’s history, reflecting national resolve, scientific achievement, and institutional commitment.
- ❖ GSF recognises the contributions of Pakistan’s scientists, engineers, researchers, technical experts, and institutions whose expertise, dedication, and sustained efforts advanced the country’s scientific and strategic capabilities. Their collective contributions represent an important chapter in Pakistan’s scientific and technological development and highlight the enduring importance of knowledge, research, innovation, and human capital to national progress.
- ❖ GSF pays tribute to the Pakistan Armed Forces for their steadfast service, professionalism, discipline, and unwavering commitment to safeguarding Pakistan’s sovereignty, territorial integrity, and national security. The Forum honours the dedication and sacrifices of the officers and personnel who have served and continue to serve the nation, recognising their vital role in maintaining national security, strategic preparedness, and resilience. GSF acknowledges their enduring service and expresses its deep appreciation for their contribution to the security and stability of Pakistan.

Global Strategic Forum (GSF)