GSF/03/2026

14-August-2026

“14 August is an occasion to honour the vision and leadership of Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah and the determination of the people who made Pakistan possible. On Independence Day, the Global Strategic Forum (GSF) reaffirms its commitment to promoting national unity, knowledge, responsible citizenship, peace, and national progress, while contributing to a deeper understanding of Pakistan’s role in regional and global affairs.”

Global Strategic Forum (GSF)

- ❖ The Global Strategic Forum (GSF) extends its warm greetings to the people of Pakistan on the occasion of Independence Day. 14 August marks Pakistan’s independence in 1947 and remains a significant occasion to reflect on the vision, determination, and collective efforts that led to the creation of the country.
- ❖ GSF pays tribute to Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah, Allama Muhammad Iqbal, and the leaders, workers, and people of the Pakistan Movement whose vision, perseverance, and sacrifices contributed to the establishment of an independent Pakistan. The Forum also recognises the contributions of generations of Pakistanis who have served the country and advanced its development across education, science, technology, diplomacy, culture, business, and other fields.
- ❖ Independence Day provides an opportunity to reflect on Pakistan’s journey while looking towards the future with confidence and optimism. GSF believes that national unity, quality education, research, innovation, responsible citizenship, institutional development, and constructive engagement with the international community can contribute to a peaceful, stable, prosperous, and forward-looking Pakistan. The Forum reaffirms its commitment to promoting informed and constructive discourse on international relations, strategic affairs, peace, and national development.
